Jalsa Salana

QADIAN 2015

The Promised Messiah^{as} says:

"It is re-emphasized that you must not rank this convention in the same league as other, ordinary, human assemblies. This is a phenomenon that is based purely for the support of truth and upholding the word of islam. God, the Exalted, has laid its foundation-stone by his own hand."

JALSA SALANA QADIAN

ITS SIGNIFICANCE, AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Hadhrat Masih Maood Alaihissalam says:

“The primary purpose of this Convention is to enable every sincere individual to personally experience religious benefits; They may enhance their knowledge and – due to their being blessed and enabled by Allah, The Exalted - their perception [of Allah] may progress. Among its secondary benefits is that this congregational meeting together will promote mutual introduction among all brothers, and it will strengthen the fraternal ties within this Community..”

(Ishtihar 7 Dec. 1892, Majmoo`ah Ishtiharat Vol. I, Page 340)

"This gathering embodies many divine benefits. It is, therefore, essential for those who can afford to undertake the journey, to participate in this gathering. They should bring with them their winter-bedding as would be necessary.

They should disregard the minor inconveniences suffered in the cause of Allah and His Holy Prophet, Allah blesses His sincere devotees at every step, and every hardship borne in this cause never goes unrewarded.

This gathering (Jalsa) may not be termed as an ordinary gathering. This is an affair solely based on divine support and uphold of Islamic creed. The foundation of this gathering has been laid by God Almighty's own hand and nations have been prepared for it who shall in the near future join in because this is the deed of the Almighty to whom nothing is impossible.

“I conclude with the prayer that everyone who travels for [attending] this Convention that is for the sake of Allah: May Allah, the Exalted, be with him, reward him in abundant measure, have mercy on him, ease up for him his circumstances of hardship and anxiety and eliminate his anguish and grief. May He grant him freedom from every single hardship and lay open for him the ways of [achieving] his cherished goals, and raise him up, on the day of Judgment, among those of His servants who are the recipients of His blessings and Mercy. May He be their Guardian in their absence until after their journey comes to an end. O Allah! O Sublime One and Bestower of bounties, the Ever Merciful and One Who Resolves all problems, do grant all these prayers, and grant us Victory over our opponents with scintillating signs, because You alone have all the prowess and power. Aameen! Aameen!!”

"The main avocation in this gathering would be the exposition of such knowledge and truth that would be essential to promote faith and wisdom and with special concentration it shall be prayed to the Most Merciful that these friends may be drawn towards Him, accepted by Him and granted pure internal change."

(Roohani Khazain Vol: 4 P:352)

"You should listen with most attention and concentration, because this is an affair concerning your faith. Negligence, indifference if shown in this matter would bring forth adverse effects. Those who show indifference and apathy in matters concerning faith, whenever something is said to them, never pay attention to it. However effective, beneficial eloquent may be the speech it would have no effect on such people. These are the people for whom it is said that they possess a heart but don't understand. It is therefore, essential that you should listen carefully, however long he may enjoy the company of a beneficial person he would never benefit from him."

(Al-Hakam March 10, 1902)

Directives

Some Directives for Guests and Workers of Jalsa Salana In the light of instructions by Hadhrat Khalifatul Masih V

PURPOSE OF JALSA SALANA

This is NOT A FESTIVAL but a Jama'at convention. Do not think that you are participating in a festival and do not waste your time in personal meetings or in buying or selling or showing off the latest fashions.

Greet each other with smiles. If you had any rancour, end them with smiles in these three days. Secondly, spread the good words and urge others to perform good deeds and tell them to desist from bad practices. After all, that is the prime purpose of Jalsa Salana. Those who come to attend Jalsa, must participate in it fully and instead of roaming about aimlessly, they should derive the maximum benefit from the programme.

Care should be taken that the ladies and the children sit and listen to the Jalsa proceedings quietly and to derive the maximum benefit from them.

BLESSINGS OF JALSA

Ahmadis.... should participate in the Jalsa with full zeal and vigour. This is YOUR Jalsa Salana. Do not be absent without any valid reason. Some people only come for one day instead of all three days and then their objective is to meet friends rather than gain the blessings of the occasion. If the blessings of Jalsa are kept in mind, then attendance on all three days is essential. Listen to the speeches and other programmes in silence, paying full attention. Do not waste this precious time.

ADVICE FOR HOSTS

- To honour and serve our guests should be our aim and we should serve them with love and sincerity and in a spirit of sacrifice.

ADVICE FOR GUESTS

- Guests should remember that all these arrangements are temporal. The volunteers work very hard to serve the guests, but occasionally if there is any shortfall, it should be overlooked.

- If any guests find a shortfall, they should gently draw attention of the workers to it. There is no need to get angry. The arrangements are large scale and there are bound to be some deficiencies. They should be tolerated and overlooked.

ADVICE FOR WORKERS

- Treat your fellow workers with respect and honour; and perform all your duties together in an atmosphere of love and friendship.
- The hosts must perform their duties of hospitality in a pleasant manner and continue to do so as long as the hospitality period continues. It is not commendable that the workers disappear immediately after the Jalsa is over and those in charge are left in embarrassment. Perform your duties diligently and honestly.
- Similarly, if the workers find a guest angry, they should apologise politely and try to remove and solve his difficulty. Remember! you should never speak to your guests harshly or discourteously.

ETIQUETTES OF THE MOSQUE

- Remember the etiquette and sanctity of the place in and around the mosque. During the Jalsa, the marquees serve as mosques. Therefore, remember to observe the sanctity of the mosque in these.

ETIQUETTES OF THE PRAYER

- Jalsa days should be spent in the remembrance of Allah, reciting 'Durood' (invoking blessings of Allah upon His Holy Prophet) and regular performance of Salat. The guests have come from far and wide. If they do not perform Salat regularly and at their appointed times, they will lose the real purpose of their coming to Jalsa. Similarly, in such places as the kitchen where it is difficult for the worker to leave, arrangements should be made so that they can perform their Salat in their place of duty. This is the responsibility of those who are in charge of those areas.

- Sometimes, children start crying during the Salat, this naturally diverts the attention of the others and spoils their prayers. The parents, whether father or mother, should take the child away for the sake of others.
- Fathers or mothers with very young children should not try to occupy the front rows during Salat. They should sit in the back row so that if need be, they can leave.

MOBILE PHONES

- Please switch off your mobile (handy/cell) phones during the prayers. Some people have the habit of bringing in their phones and leaving them switched on. When the phones begin ringing, it causes a great deal of disturbance to the worshippers.

ETIQUETTES OF CONVERSATION

- Refrain from meaningless talk. Conversation should be carried out in low voice and with due respect. Acrimonious talk should be avoided.
- Some people talk loudly and in querulous tones as a matter of habit or sit in groups and indulge in loud laughter. Try to avoid these practices as much as you can during these three days. In fact avoid these altogether. This is not considered a good habit anyway.

DISCIPLINE

- Be mindful of all the discipline and arrangement and co-operate and abide fully with the instructions given by workers on duty.

CLEANLINESS

- During the Jalsa, some children and adults throw litter on the grounds and pathways. Irrespective of whose duty it is, whosoever notices any litter should pick it up and deposit it in the litterbins or boxes provided for this purpose. Both guests and hosts should keep the site free of litter.
 - There are simple etiquettes of cleanliness. Remember to keep the toilets clean, after all cleanliness is part of our faith.

ADVICE FOR WOMEN

- Ladies are advised that they should take care not to roam around aimlessly. However, those ladies who are not Ahmadi and do not observe Purdah, they should only be requested to do so. There is no need for force or coercion.

If there is some Ahmadi who has a difficulty to cover her face, she should wear minimum and simple make-up. Spread the habit of keeping your head covered. It should be remembered that we are spending our time in a spiritual environment during these days. We should not try to find excuses not to observe Purdah. It is a different matter if there is a genuine reason. Even then the minimum norms of Purdah should be observed.

Do not be oblivious of what was said in the speeches and what tarbiyyat programmes were discussed.

ETIQUETTES OF FOOD

- It has been observed that a lot of food is wasted during these days. It is generally a good practice to take only so much in the plate as you can finish and thus waste nothing. Teach the same to your children. We should not be guilty of bad manners that may affect others. It is also observed that food is wasted by the consumers and not by those seeing. Please avoid this practice.

- Demand only as much food as you can consume. However, those on duty are instructed that they should never refuse anyone who wants food. If they see someone wasting the food he should be gently reminded about this fact but no worker is expected to use hard words or rude language with guests. Explain gently that once you finish, you can have a second helping.

- Some guests leave their dirty plates on the table and do not deposit them in the waste-bins that are provided. It requires only a small effort on the part of each guest. Dirty plates lying around look untidy, are unhygienic and add to unnecessary work for volunteers already under pressure when they can gainfully be employed elsewhere.

ADVICE REGARDING BAZAAR

- Another important matter to note is that the Bazaar remains closed during the Jalsa proceedings. The guests should be aware of this and not force the shop owners to open their shops for them or sit there.

SECURITY

- It is important that for the sake of security, you remain watchful all the time. Be vigilant and if you notice a stranger, inform the relevant department immediately. It is not advisable to interfere yourself personally.
- The best way to be watchful is to keep a sharp look out around yourselves on those who are not familiar to you. This is the best security for Jama'at Ahmadiyya. When entering, present yourselves voluntarily to the relevant staff for checking.
- Always keep your identity card prominently visible. If you notice someone without the card, remind him politely to display his card.
- Take special care of your valuables and cash. This is your own responsibility. The organisers cannot be held responsible for any loss.

ADVICE REGARDING VISA

- Please observe the other laws of this country during your stay here. Make sure that you leave this country before your visit visa expires. Those who obtained the visa to come to Jalsa must utilise the entry clearance for the Jalsa alone strictly.

PRAYER

- Most important are supplications and prayers to Allah. Remember to put great emphasis on your prayers, when starting your journey coming to Jalsa and during travels.

Based on Friday Sermon 18th July 2003

(Published in Al-Fazl International 12th September 2003)

The following important points may be kept in mind during Jalsa.

☆ During Jalsa remain engrossed in the remembrance of Allah, invocation of blessings of Allah on the Holy Prophet (Peace and blessing of Allah be upon him) and be regular and punctual in congregational five time prayers.

☆ Greet your friends with a cheerful countenance and gift of salaam.

☆ Co-operate with the officials of Jalsa, make matters easy for the volunteers of the Jalsa for they have dedicated their services for you.

☆ During Jalsa Sessions be present in the Jalsa Gah and benefit yourself from the divine discourses. During the Jalsa do not move without a 'Topi' (Cap)

☆ During meals, maintain discipline and decorum and take care of cleanliness. Do not throw out any waste within the surrounding of the Jalsa Gah that would discolour the beauty of this spiritual ambience of the Gathering.

☆ We should put the waste into the dustbins, kept for this purpose. If you find any expensive thing, inform Khidmat-e- Khalque office about it.

☆ Abstain from smoking in the vicinity of the Jalsa Gah and don't stand amidst the passages.

☆ Take special care of cleanliness of your clothes. Put on such clothes as would exhibit the personality of an Ahmadi.

☆ Ladies are requested to observe Islamic 'Purdah'. It is in this Purdah that your honour lies. Please see to it that while offering prayers in Bahishti Maqbara no idolatory customs are committed. Picking up dust from the grave or stroking your hands on the grave and applying it on your face or body and offering flowers to the grave are all un-Islamic and idolatory customs, therefore, every Ahmadi must refrain from them.

☆ With the permission of Huzoor Anwar^{aba}, during the three days of Jalsa Salana i.e. 26th to 28th December 2015 there would be refreshment items available at the Jalsa gah. People can buy the food items at the stalls. As it takes too much time to come to Mohallah Ahmadiyya for the same.
